Agent for the Democrat in Jeffersonville.

Mr. Stenberg, our former agent in Jeffersonville, has disposed of his business to C. H. Paddock, of that city, who will receive the subscription for the Democrat that may be left at his place, and will be paid for, on the northeast corner of Spring and Front streets.

To Country Printers.

Having refurnished our jobbing department with the latest styles of type, press, &c., a large quantity of second-hand material has been thrown out of the way, most of which would be suitable for a country printing office, which will sell very cheap to make room for new improvements. One large size hand-press, in good working order; one Hoe and press, in good order; a lot of metal and wood type cases, stands, chases and other material. We have a large quantity of pretty good body type, suitable for a country paper, which can be bought at a fraction over the price of old metal. Address, HARNEY, HUGHES & CO., Democrat Office.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We will execute, in splendid variety, those magnificent posters which exhibitors have had to import in order to create a favorable sensation for their peculiar exhibitions. In fact, there is no class of Job Printing but will come within in our resources, and we challenge comparison with any job printing establishment in the country. Our prices will always be moderate.

THE KENTUCKY STATE FAIR.

Description of the Fair Grounds—First Day's Exhibition—List of Premiums Awarded—The Exhibition To-day.

Our State Agricultural Fair is one of the recognized institutions of the State, and, although through the casualties of a civil war, its benefits have been obscured, we are glad to see that it is again to take the stand which it so richly deserves. In a state where the growth, agriculture and stock raising interests of the State are indebted to these fairs, as the premiums offered by them are such as to induce the farmer and stock raiser to use extra diligence to excel all others.

The seventh annual exhibition of this fair commenced at the grounds of the Southwestern and Agricultural Association yesterday morning. The weather during the morning was exceedingly hot, with prospects of rain, which deterred many from going, and consequently there was not as large an attendance as we would like to have seen. In addition to the exhibition of cattle, hogs and sheep, which are only a matter of great interest to the farmers, and those engaged in raising this description of stock. Had not a heavy showering rain set in about 2 o'clock there would have been a large number of persons in attendance in the afternoon, but as it was they were prevented from coming.

THE FAIR GROUNDS. All of our readers are no doubt familiar with the grounds of the Southwestern Agricultural and Mechanical Association, but the present time, owing to the changes which have been made. But right here we would state that there of the amphitheater is in very bad repair, and in places the rain comes through as if there was no shelter at all. As you enter at the grounds, a long promenade, extending to the dining room, is in the rear of the grounds, meets the eye. This is covered with bark, which always affords a dry and pleasant walk. The entire amphitheater has been thoroughly repaired and repainted, with the exception of the roof of the amphitheater. The grounds are shady, and notwithstanding the extreme hot weather, it was pleasant there yesterday. A promenade through the grounds is well worth a trip there and back.

THE FAIR'S EXHIBITION.

The exhibition yesterday, as we have stated above, was devoted entirely to cattle, hogs and sheep, the two riding rings having been postponed until to-day on account of the extreme inclement weather. Some of the stock exhibited was exceedingly fine, though the number of entries for the different rings was not as large as we had expected to see. That Kentucky is the first stock raising State in the country is a fact that cannot be denied, and those who witnessed the stock on exhibition there yesterday will bear testimony to this fact. We are sorry that our space does not allow of our making special mention of each ring of cattle, but to mention one without the other would, we think, be doing injustice to the different classes who had stock on exhibition; but notwithstanding this, we cannot decline mentioning the fine fat bullock shown by Capt. Geo. Womack, of this county, which took both the blue and red ribbons. The ring for yoke oxen for work created considerable meriment, there being two entries, and during the exhibition they had a trial of speed around the ring.

After this ring a recess was taken for dinner, and all repaired to the extensive dining-room in the grove, just in the rear of the building, for the reception of the ladies. While at the table a heavy shower came up, and those who were attending to the wants of the inner man were compelled to take a hasty retreat, much to the discomfort of many.

At about 2 o'clock the bell was rung, calling for the entire entries, which were the sheep, the long-wool and Southdown being exhibited at the same time, and while heavy rain was pouring down. The contest for the Southdown being between L. E. Brown, of Henry county, and A. G. Herr, of this city. Mr. Herr, as the Shetwoley fair, carried off the true blue in many of the rings, though in some he was compelled to succumb to the Henry county representative. Mr. Herr has undoubtedly some of the finest sheep in the State.

The riding rings which were advertised to come off had to be postponed, as the rain had much softened the ring, and it would have been a great injury to the same to have the entries muddy. They will come off to-day, and will be gladly be learned by those who were detained from going yesterday afternoon, on account of the rain.

TROTTING MATCH.

There were two premiums offered for trotting, the first of $100, given by the Louisville Hotel, and the second, a more contested one, given by Edward Everett and Capt. Unthank's bay horse. The track was so heavy and slippery that at one time the trot was announced to be postponed, but at the hour both came upon the track and the trot was had. The time of Everett was 2:50, while that of Captain Unthank's horse was 3:56.

The second premium of $25, given by John Desermann, formerly of the Hotel de Reine, was not trotted for at the time we left.

To-day there will be two trials of speed, the first for any mare or gelding, for $5, given by the National Hotel; and the other for two year olds, for $10, given by the St. Cloud Hotel. In addition to this there will be a mule race, mile heats, the fastest mule in the premium, which is $25. There are a number of entries for each of these races, and fine sport may be looked for in the afternoon.

THE EXHIBITION TO-DAY.

This will be the greatest day of the week, being devoted to the thorough-bred horses, and what can be more beautiful than a thorough-bred horse? Some of the colts of the noble Wagner and Grey Eagle will enter for the premiums offered. We noticed in some of the stables, yesterday, a number of fine horses that are known to fame. The cause of the slim attendance yesterday was the extreme heat, but we saw on the ground some of the best agriculturists and most distinguished stock-breeders of the bluegrass regions. The stock exhibited was good, but the competition rather meager. Careful stock men, of course, would hesitate risking their animals on railroads or in close pens during such hot weather.

The exhibition to-day, however, will be most excellent, and we look for some fifty or twenty entries for each of the rings. Those who wish to look at the stock, and spend a profitable day, will not fail to attend. The cars will leave the depot at Brook and Jefferson every half hour.

We publish below the list of premiums that will be offered to-day:

More Robberies—Daring Attempts at Robbery.

If there was ever a time in the history of our city when the extra vigilance of our police force was needed it is at the present, as our city is now overrun with a set of the most daring robbers, burglars and murderers that have ever been known to the history of crime. Not a day passes but some offense is committed. They will come off to-day, and will be gladly be learned by those who were detained from going yesterday afternoon, on account of the rain.

THE FAIR.—Notwithstanding the bad state of the weather last evening, Masonic Temple was very well filled with people, who seemed interested in the fair now in progress. The fair is a success, and is everywhere, and we know that all who may go will not only enjoy themselves, but will be adding to the enjoyment of others, and assist in helping the church. To-night, and we promise you will spend a very pleasant and agreeable evening.

TRIAL OF MAGRUDER.—The trial of Magruder will commence to-day in the military prison, before a military commission, of which Colonel Will. Coy, Judge Advocate of Department of Kentucky, will preside. Major General W. C. Whitaker, late of the Federal army, will defend the prisoner during the trial. Magruder is charged with having committed seventeen murders.

ESCAPED.—Wm. Whitesides, one of the party who fired into the soldiers' camp near Lyon Garden Sunday, was arrested by the soldiers and put in Barracks No. 1, to await an examination and trial for his conduct. Night before last William made his escape, and up to last night nothing was heard of him. The sergeant in charge took William to be a citizen (which he was), and permitted him to leave the guardhouse very quietly. Soldiers and police are on the trail of William.

STEAMBOATS can be supplied with copies of our paper at regular rates charged newsboys. Orders left with any of the steamboat agents the day before will be promptly filled. It is useless to say that the Democrat is a live newspaper, and its river news full and reliable—always furnishing the very latest matters of interest to steamboatmen.

ARRESTS.—The following additional arrests to those mentioned elsewhere, were made by the police force yesterday: Daniel Robt, stealing a hat, by Officers Hammond and Cross; Allen Nelson, 4-w, stealing a box of jewelry from W. Bird, by Officer J. S. Cave, and Jas. Stewart, stealing a horse, by Officer W. C. Cross.

RETURNED.—Wm. Sackman, who has been absent for some time, has returned to the city, and will again be found at his old place at the Saratoga saloon, at the corner of Fifth and Jefferson. The friends of Billy, as he is familiarly called, will be glad to welcome him home again.

THE CORNER'S JURY.

The coroner of yesterday gave the full particulars, as far as developed, in the case of the poisoning of John Spellman and Daniel Lannhan. The coroner's jury will meet at the Mayor's office at 4 o'clock this evening, when the examination in the case will be closed, and the verdict of the jury rendered.

THE FOLLOWING is a partial list of the goods on display at the Old Book Store yesterday: One gold watch, one pearl oar glass, three silver ice pitchers, seven cake baskets, twenty-five sets of spoons and forks, besides a great number of other handsome and useful articles. All books sold at this popular establishment at the regular publishers' price, and a handsome gift accompanies each purchase.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Yesterday afternoon a man, whose name was unable to learn, stored in the stable of Mr. Hughes, on Main street, below Preston. He laid down there and expired in a very short time. It is supposed that he died from the effects of the severe heat.

YESTERDAY MORNING Officer C. McKim arrested a man for obtaining $4 under false pretenses from Richard Moore, on Fourth street. The accused was taken before Squires Clement and Mallick, when, after an examination of the case, the parties were discharged.

YESTERDAY THOS. EUGLEMAN, while walking down Fourth street, switched from a fruit vender a small amount of money, for which he was arrested and placed in jail by Officer Spaulding.

THE MAN Wm. Conner, spoken of in another part of the paper as being knocked down and robbed, is not the gentleman of the same name who keeps a grocery in the upper portion of the city.

ACCIDENTLY KILLED.—Yesterday afternoon a negro man by the name of Morehead, who resides on First street, between Washington and the river, killed his wife in the following manner. He was engaged with a party of his friends, when it went off, the shot taking effect in the woman's abdomen. Morehead was arrested and afterwards released.

THE funeral of Mr. Cleveland, who was murdered in Jeffersonville by a negro soldier, took place yesterday, and was largely attended. There is still considerable excitement in Jeffersonville in regard to the murder.

THE rain yesterday quite deluged portions of our city. Near the intersection of Twelfth and Main streets, Twelfth was completely flooded, sidewalks and all, sometime after the storm was over. We saw lady and gentlemen pedestrians compelled to take the middle of the street to avoid wading.

THE precise benefit, financially or otherwise, of scraping into heaps dirt and filth of our streets, and letting it remain until the rains wash it back into the streets, we have never been able to perceive but such is the practice in this city.

ALLEN MURPHY, late of the 7th Kentucky cavalry, and another man, were arrested for robbing a traveler for his money, near Falmouth, Ky., a few days ago. The murderers are still at large.

RELEASED.—Private Chas. Thomlinson, company F, 53d Kentucky Infantry regiment, who was confined under confinement yesterday, by order of Major General Palmer.

WE invite the attention of our many readers to the advertisement in today's paper, headed "Notice to Oil Companies." The parties are responsible and will do what they promise.

THERE were the usual number of cases tried before the military commission and court-martial yesterday. Nothing of great importance, however, transpired.

MAJOR CHIEF Wharton, of Nashville, was in the city yesterday.

MILLINERY GOODS.—We invite the attention of our lady readers to the card of Mrs. J. A. Beattie in this morning's paper. At her old established quarters, No. 100 Fourth street, she has just received, and is opening, a splendid assortment of millinery goods, embracing hats, bonnets, ribbons, flowers, feathers and plumes, and all the imaginable wants of the lady's toilet.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT.—De Haven & Co.'s great United States circus will exhibit on
